Redeeming time
The battle ours;
Forth
To the front,
Banners high,
Waving.

Redeeming time
Past battles won;
Dare
Not to rest,
Conflicts real,
Growing.

Redeeming time
His strength ours;
Go
Not alone;-
Together then,
Loving.

Redeeming time
Fight then on;
Press
For His glory,
In hands, sure-gripped,
Clenching
THE SWORD.

II. We Joined Together

A Christian College must be designed to serve its generation. Since a Christian College may have a history of several decades, it may be expected that changes will be necessary in organization and method in order to minister effectively under new situations. The past history of London College of Bible and Missions demonstrates this process of development from its feeble beginnings about 35 years ago. Men of vision who had responsibility for the College endeavoured to strengthen the programs of Christian vocational training so that committed young people should have a good preparation for ministry. During the past years of development the College has not changed its adherence to the great doctrines of the faith contained in its Statement of Faith and Practice. Organization and method may change, but our message must remain constant since we are under a divine commission to declare the Gospel of Christ.

The world of today is far different from the world of the 1930's. The challenge facing the Christian College today demands careful consideration of the best way to prepare young people to meet the opportunities of this day. For several years prior to 1968 numerous talks were held between representatives from Toronto Bible College and London College of Bible and Missions, considering the advisability of the merging of the two Colleges for reasons not difficult to discover. The two Colleges have had similar academic programs, and looked to the same general constituency for support and students. However, God has His own time for the realization of His purposes. Earlier discussions did not produce any concrete results, but early in 1968 official talks taking place seemed to indicate that God's time was at hand. To face the challenge of a new generation and age, the consolidation of our resources and work seemed to be the will of God. A combined college with increased financial and academic strength was needed to face the demands of the immediate decades.

The decision to merge, and to establish the new College on the Toronto campus was a difficult decision for the London College family to make. The familiar landmarks and buildings which became so much a part of the life of students, staff, and faculty were to be sold in order to consummate the merger.

However, a college is far more than merely buildings and land. A college actually is involved with the intangible things of vision, purposes, fellowship, and shared responsibilities. These were elements that were not bound to buildings and land. These elements could become a part of the new College. From the perspective of the London College family it has been most gratifying that most of the faculty, staff, and student body have come a part of the new College. Although the campus and buildings have gone, the vital part of the London College spirit has been merged into the fuller stream of Ontario Bible College. That which men of vision prayed for and worked for still goes on in a channel of wider opportunities.

Our experience in Ontario Bible College has indeed been an experience of unity in Christ. The faculty members from both Colleges have complemented each other in very remarkable ways, and our fellowship together has been rich and rewarding. The staff members from London have found areas of ministry in which they may serve together with those from Toronto. Students from both Colleges have been enjoying fellowship together in the experience of college life. A spirit of enthusiasm and excitement has characterized these past weeks, and we look forward expectantly to the good things that God has in store for us. Names long associated with our London campus have now been transferred to buildings on the new campus - Mahood Hall, Harris Memorial Conservatory, Hooper Chapel, Alloway Hall, and Dixon Hall. These names now take their place alongside the names associated with Toronto Bible College - William J. Horsey Library, Rhodes Hall, Usher Hall, McNicol Hall. These names will stand as a perpetual reminder of the two Colleges whose history and experience have now merged.

The future now stretches before us. Together we now move as one in Christ in order to realize God's purpose in the momentous days which are before us. This combining of strong, spiritual faculties, dedicated and zealous students, godly men who have governed the two bodies, and praying and supporting Christian constituencies, cannot help but produce, under the blessing of God, a finer and better equipped Bible College for this new day in which we live.

Our President

Dr. and Mrs. Boehmer

To be "in Christ" is to be a Christian or "Christ's one". That sinners who had been ruined by the fall should attain unto such a glorious standing is beyond our ability to comprehend. But God has declared the fact, and His children accept it in simple faith. "There is no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus."

But do we stop there? God forbid! The Christian is to "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ". Concerning the Saviour, the Scriptures declare that He "increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man". The reference, of course, is to His human, and not His divine, nature. Of His humanity we read, "although He was God's Son, yet learned He obedience from the sufferings which He endured".

Young people are so often characterized by zeal and enthusiasm. They are impetuous. They see visions. They want to get on with the job. And dedicated Christians are no exception to the rule. But since God has commissioned you to be His ambassadors in the despatch of His business, it is of paramount importance that you go forth to represent Him as "workmen that need not to be ashamed".

To be sure, you will have ample opportunity to serve Him and to make Him known even during these days of training. But your main task must be that of adequate preparation with a view to "full maturity in Christ". Zeal will not suffice. Nor will a second-rate education. With Paul we pray that "your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence 'til the day of Christ. ."

D. L. Boehmer

Alumni Association

The great unifying factor of our new Alumni Association can be nothing more and must be nothing less than the Person of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He is the cohesive force, cementing together mature men and women in a partnership with a common goal.

This underlying principle of oneness, seen in the figure of His Body, is giving impetus, motivation and direction to our combined efforts in His name. We have set aside former prejudices in the form of rivalries and have blended our Associations into one energetic and productive alliance.

From this spiritual look-out, we anticipate only the full and active interest of the whole family and an enthusiastic participation in the developments that will be forthcoming. We will ask God to use our influence individually in encouraging young people to prepare for the Lord's work and we will give of that which has been committed to our trust, and in so doing, prove the sincerity of our love.

Let us therefore covenant with one another that the unparalleled opportunities ahead will not find us wanting in initiative.

Student Council Draws Up New Constitution

Student leaders from London and Toronto joined in an enlarged Council to represent the combined student bodies. As weekly sessions convened, new plans, student activities and policies were programmed; the complaints of students were aired and dealt with.

One of the many duties of the Council Executive was to work with faculty in drawing up the College Student Constitution.

It was a difficult year, - busy, but rewarding for each member as motions were proposed, discussed and voted on, - motions that will affect the life of our College in the years ahead.

OUR TRIBUTE

J. William Horsey

J. William Horsey, who served as Chairman of the Board of this College from December, 1964, died on December 20, 1968 at the age of 76 in St. Petersburg, Florida.

News media paid many tributes to his outstanding accomplishments in the business world. These accomplishments, however, serve only to illustrate the grace and guidance of God in the life of this man. We remember him as a loyal servant of God and as our friend.

Mr. Horsey's generous contributions to this institution will have an effect on the life of every student who studies at Ontario Bible College.

With these few and all too inadequate words, the students, staff and faculty pay tribute to a man of God, Mr. J. William Horsey.

“Faithful Is He...He Also Will Do It”— Headlines Anniversary Conference

Discussion with the speakers proved invaluable.

Rev. Leith Samuel,
Southampton, England.

“The power of the gospel
is to bring light and warmth.
It is not an end in itself. But soundness without warmth is repelling and warmth without soundness is misleading.”

Student music added much to the Conference.

Dr. Nigel Kerr,
Gordon Divinity School,
Boston.

“Conscience rightly prepared is essential to the Christ-life which we are called upon to live. Thus we say, ‘I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward God and toward men.’ (Acts 24:16).”

Day of Prayer

Class Prayer Meetings

Missions Prayer Groups

Prayer Partners' Tea

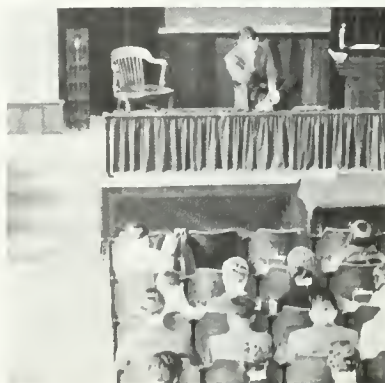

Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air;
His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

James Montgomery

“Above Us the Cross... Around Us the World”

The vision of a dying world is vast before our eyes,
We feel the heartbeat of its need, we hear its feeble cries;
Lord Jesus Christ revive Thy church in this her crucial hour
Lord Jesus Christ, awake Thy church with Spirit given power.

Now, We Go on Together

A year has passed;-a year of tremendous blessing to us who have seen two great institutions join to solve so formidable difficulties in order that together, goals might be further established and achieved. Memories of the new Ontario Bible College have been captured, we trust, on the preceding pages and in our hearts; yet we do not stand and admire goals reached and achievements made. We only acknowledge the hand and leading of God. The future lies ahead, unknown by us. We press then on...

...In Hands, Sure-Gripped, the Sword.
